Commitment and Operational Statements

Time Commitment: Serving on the Early Learning Coalition of Brevard County will require a commitment of time, including regular Coalition meetings, committee involvement, reading and becoming educated about many aspects of early childhood development, workforce development, and education.

Conflict of Interest: Conflict of interest may occur when an item is presented for a vote that will directly affect you, your employer, or another organization with which you are involved. Conflict of interest rules generally require you to disclose the conflict and abstain from discussion and/or voting on the matter.

Government in the Sunshine: The Early Learning Coalition of Brevard County is a legislatively mandated group subject to the guidelines of Florida Statute 286.011. As such, all meetings where two or more Board members are present and Coalition business is discussed must be publicly noticed in advance of the meeting.

Employment: The governing Early Learning Coalition legislation states that nominated members must be from the private sector, either for-profit or nonprofit. The nominated member, (or a relative), may not have a substantial financial interest in the design or delivery of the VPK or School Readiness programs.

I have read and understand the above statements and agree to abide by these. I also attest to the accuracy of all information included above.
